

Adulthood

- Complete the study, select a career
- Consider life goals and career plans
- Respect parents and accept their advice
- Dating, get married and start a family
- Have children
- Take up parental role

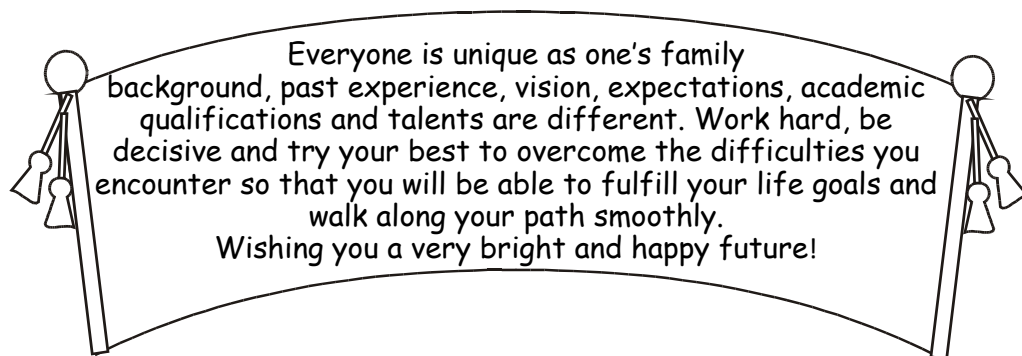

Late adulthood

- Establish a career
- Raise up children
- Look after ageing parents
- Have a happy family and sweet home

Elderly

- Retire
- Have grandchildren
- Enjoy your life

Is This Your Way ?

Infancy

- Rapid body growth
- Need parents' full attention and nurture

Childhood

- Learn social skills for daily living
- Learn to get along with peers
- Imitate parents, seeing them as role models
- Adjust to school life

Student Health Service
Department of Health
2022

Adolescence

- Stage for gaining knowledge
- Body starts to produce more hormones which stimulate pubertal development including secondary sexual characteristics and body growth
- Develop new and more mature relationships with peers of both sexes
- Achieve personal independence, develop your own goals and make your own choices
- Develop self-image, identity and self-esteem
- Pay attention to appearance and value peer's acceptance

Boys

Girls

